A Day

- WAMS ANTI-BULLYING WEEK

Today marks the start of anti-bully week! Our blue today represents that NO MATTER what anyone looks like, NO ONE deserves to be bullied for any reason! Let's learn how to honor each other's differences and respect and celebrate each other's similarities.

Do not forget to sock out bullying tomorrow and wear your crazy socks.

- OASIS

Oasis is honoring Veteran's Day by collecting gently used clothing to donate to the vets. This will be a school wide competition to see which homeroom can collect the most clothes!

Oasis will be collecting gently used clothes on Monday, November 12th, Tuesday the 13th, and Wednesday the 14th. Please hand your donations to your homeroom teacher. Thank you for the support.

- LIBRARY BOOKS

Please return ALL overdue books to the library. Thank you!
