FROM THE DESK OF MRS. CARAVANO

Welcome back from what I hope was an enjoyable spring break. We had an exciting first day back to school that ended with the solar eclipse. Students were anxious to use their eclipse glasses as they left the building and walked towards their buses and cars. Even Mr. Kent and I enjoyed the view!

Our third marking period is ending this week and it is hard to believe we are heading into the final quarter of our school year! Spring sports are underway and the weather is getting quite beautiful. Our staff is busy planning for both the 7th and 8th grade class trip and other fun activities as we prepare for our final weeks of school. Additionally, we are preparing for our upcoming standardized testing. Our 8th grade students will be taking the NJSLA Science assessment on 5/1 and 5/2, while our 7th graders complete their ELA and Math MAP assessments. The remaining NJSLA assessments will be completed on 5/8 and 5/9 (ELA) and again on 5/21 and 5/22 (Mathematics). More information will be sent out soon. I hope you enjoy the week ahead!

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- The Third Marking Period ends on Monday, 4/15. Our 4th Marking Period will begin on Tuesday, 4/16. Report Cards will be available at the end of this week.
- If a student misses a class, any assignment, quiz or test that occurred will be marked as 'Missing' to help the student identify what they need to make up. This applies to any missed classes, including sick days, vacations or school-sponsored activities.

CHARACTERSTRONG CORNER

AUTISM ACCEPTANCE WEEK

Monday	Wear sports gear because we are teaming up to learn about Autism.
Tuesday	Wear different socks because differences make the world more interesting.
Wednesday	Wear workout gear because we are ready to put in the work for unity.
Thursday	Wear Blue for Autism Acceptance.
Friday	Wear WAMS gear to show we are all part of the same community.

This week we are taking a break from CharacterStrong to celebrate Autism Acceptance Month. Students will watch videos and complete activities in which they will learn about autism and learn how to be inclusive and spread kindness to others.
